

Time	Subject	Presenter
8:30	Welcome & Context Setting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Why are we here? - Goals of the training 1. Deepen understanding of fish and wildlife as cultural resources 2. Enhance understanding of tribal sovereignty, treaty, and property rights' 3. Kick-off development of tribal consultation best practices 	Debbie Colbert, Director Davia Palmeri, Strategic Advisor
8:45	Fish, Wildlife, and Habitat are Cultural Resources (connection to health, humanity) First Foods Oregon's approach	Eric Quaempts, Director of Natural Resources, Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation
10:00	Break
10:15	Tribal Sovereignty, Treaty, and Property Rights (especially related to hunting and fishing) What is sovereignty? What are Treaty rights?	Professor Robert Miller Jonathan and Wendy Rose Professor of Law, Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law, Arizona State University
11:30	Summary comments/thoughts Next Steps for developing consultation guidance	Chair Wahl Debbie Colbert, Director Davia Palmeri, Strategic Advisor
12pm	Adjourn	