

Western Pond

Top shell: dark brown to olive, flecked pattern

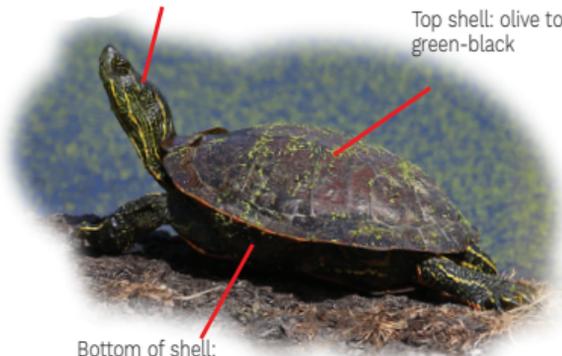

Bottom of shell:
cream with dark blotches

Head, leg color same as top shell

- ❑ Found in ponds, lakes, rivers
- ❑ Digs nests in sunny dry soil, sparse vegetation
- ❑ Rests and over-winters in upland forest

Western Painted

Yellow stripes neck, head, legs

Top shell: olive to green-black

Bottom of shell:
red with black pattern

- ❑ Prefers slow moving water, ponds, sloughs
- ❑ Digs nests in sunny dry soil, sparse vegetation
- ❑ Over-winters in mud in pond bottoms

It is illegal to remove these species from the wild, possess, transport or sell them.